

Boca Pointe Sculptor Successful Worldwide

Esther Wertheimer is a world-renowned sculptor who has approximately 34 monumental sculptures to her credit, all won by competitions. More than a dozen of her large sculptures are displayed in Japan at various places such as, City Halls, Performing Art Centers, Museums, and Parks. Her sculptures attract worldwide collectors due to the strong emphasis they have on family, love and graceful aspirations.

Among the awards and grants Wertheimer has received are: a grant from the Italian Government allowing her to work in Italy for one year, the Canada Council grant, the Elizabeth T. Greenshield Memorial grant, the Alcan Grand Prix Yearly Journalism Award, the 3rd Annual Rodin Grand Prize Exhibition, The B'nai B'rith International Arts Award, etc.

At the end of this year, Esther Wertheimer will be giving a lecture on the History of Sculptures, dating from the first Greek sculptures before our era, through the Renaissance, all the way up to the Modern Art period at The Brevard Art Museum in Melbourne, Florida.

Esther Wertheimer was recently chosen as "artist of the month" by Artists Registry. In November '09, Palm Beach Illustrated Magazine featured a one-page article on Esther Wertheimer and her colored bronze sculptures.

At the end of last year, Esther Wertheimer was in Italy. She was invited by the City of Florence to participate in the 2009 Florence Biennale with her sculptures; Invictus, Five Dancers, and Madre Gambe Incrociate were on display. At the end of the exhibition, the Biennale awarded her the "Gold Medal of Lorenzo il Magnifico" and a certificate to honor her career and work.

She was invited to exhibit her work at the Shanghai 2010 World Expo, which will begin in May and continue until October of 2010.

Wertheimer was recently awarded by the National Association of Professional Women from 150,000 members to receive the, "2010-2011 Executive and Professional Women of the Year award in Cultural Arts & Sculptures." It is the most exclusive and prestigious award of the NAPW organization. It is important to mention that based on all her achievements, talent, hard work and dedication to her career, this is an honor that is so very well deserved.

Wertheimer is also exhibiting in Boynton Beach and Melbourne, Florida.

For more information concerning Esther Wertheimer's famous sculptures, please visit her Web site at www.ewertheimer.com.

Pasquale Celona, President of the Florence Biennale presents a Gold Medal and Certificate to Esther Wertheimer for her achievements and sculptures. 800 artists participated.

Celebration 5

Paolo & Francesca

Madre Gambe Incrociate

Addosso

Esther Wertheimer
www.ewertheimer.com
ewertheimer@ewertheimer.com